

APPLIED TOPICS IN HEALTH PSYCHOLOGY

Edited by Marie L. Caltabiano and Lina A. Ricciardelli

 WILEY-BLACKWELL

APS Australian
Psychological
Society

Index

- acamprosate 340
- acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT)
 - 236
 - diabetes management 428
 - pain management 488
 - psycho-oncology 370
 - weight-loss intervention 312
- acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS)
 - 203
- action plans 10–11
- action stage of change 5, 6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- Active for Life program 63–4
- Active Living Every Day (ALED) intervention
 - 64
- adherence to medication, enhancing 446,
 - 455–6
 - causes of nonadherence 449–50
 - attitude to medication 451
 - clinical factors 452–3
 - cognitive skills 451–2
 - motivation 452
 - patient factors 451
 - relationship factors 453
 - treatment factors 450–1
 - defining adherence 446–7
 - explaining nonadherence 448
 - health belief model (HBM) 448–9
 - self-regulation model (SRM) 449
 - theory of planned behavior (TpB) 449
 - measuring adherence 447–8
 - nonadherence in chronic illness 447
 - quick tips 456
 - strategies 453
 - behavioral interventions 454–5
 - cognitive-behavioral interventions 455
 - psycho-educational approaches 453–4
- adjuvant psychological therapy (APT) 370
- African-style diet 87, 91
- age
 - body image 261–2
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 121–2
- agency 74
- aging well promotion 57–8, 67
 - healthy and successful aging concepts 59–60
 - terminology 61
 - literature review 61–2
 - interventions 61–7
 - population and individual aging 58–9
- alcohol
 - as a gender issue 76–7, 79
 - dynamic model for consumption 326
 - environmental enabling factors for consumption 324
 - migrants 91
 - predisposing factors for consumption 323
 - reinforcing factors for consumption 325

- alcohol abuse, metacognitive therapy (MCT)
 - 348
 - discussion 357–8
 - history of problem drinking behavior 348–9
 - metacognitive model 351
 - metacognitive perspective for
 - understanding SUDs 351–2
 - problem drinking behavior 349–50, 353–4
 - CBT 350
 - MI 350
 - model application case 354–7
- alcohol, reducing consumption in community
 - sports clubs 319, 329
 - evidence of problem 319–20
 - evidence-based framework for management
 - programs 322–7
 - Good Sports program 327–9
 - health behavior theory 321–2
 - PRECEDE/PROCEED model 322–7
 - risky drinking 320–1
- ALERT 337
- animal-assisted therapy (AAT) 137
- anorexia nervosa 278
- antenatal depression (AND) see perinatal depression (PND)
- antidepressants for perinatal depression (PND) 219–20
- anxiety
 - HIV and AIDS 204–5
 - perinatal depression (PND) 218
- Apert syndrome 244
- appetitive behavioral problems 79
- arm pain 486–7
- arthritis 391–3
 - managing and treating OA and RA 393–6
- assisted reproductive technologies (ART),
 - psychological implications 186, 194–5
 - gender differences 188–9
 - impact on sexual relationship 189–91
 - third-party donation and surrogacy 193–4
- asthma action plans (AAPs) 441
- asthma management 435–7, 438–9, 443–4
 - promoting treatment adherence 439–43
 - psychological factors 437–8
 - websites 444
- attitude to medication in nonadherence 451
- Australians, Indigenous 91–5
- automaticity 45–6
- back pain 487
- bariatric surgery 307, 310
- Beck Depression Inventory (BDI) 470
- behavioral family systems therapy (BFST)
 - 427
- Beliefs about Medicines Questionnaire (BMQ)
 - 448
- bereavement, benefits of companion animals
 - 138
- Binder syndrome 244
- binge drinking 321
- binge eating disorder (BED) 278
 - integrated treatment 311
- biofeedback 443
 - headache treatment 471
- body image and health 259, 270–1
 - body change behaviors 259–60
 - age-related decline 261–2
 - gender differences 260–1
 - health consequences 262
 - maternal obesity 291
 - mental health 265
 - age-related influences 266–7
 - experimental longitudinal findings 265–6
 - obesity 262–3
 - improving body image 264–5
 - relationship with body image 263–4
 - relationships 267
 - interpersonal relationships 268–9
 - sexual functioning 267–8
 - treatment options 269–70
- body mass index (BMI) 303
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 104–5
- brainstorming 10
- breast cancer screening in migrants 90
- bulimia nervosa 278
- bupropion 340
- cancer
 - definition 364
 - exercise
 - protection from cancer 31
 - recommended daily amounts 30
 - issues facing cancer patients and families
 - 366
 - emotional and psychological issues 367
 - healthcare system issues 367
 - physical issues 366
 - social and practical concerns 366
 - spiritual and existential issues 367
 - psychological strategies for patients and families
 - psychological interventions 369–71
 - screening for distress 368–9

- resources for health professionals
 - books 371–2
 - reports 372
 - websites 372
- support for patients and families 368
- treatments and side effects 364–5
- cancer, psychological approaches assisting
 - diagnosed individuals 376, 386
 - assessment 377
 - assessment as intervention 378
 - assessor and assessed 377
 - components 378
 - regularity 377–8
 - Australia 376
 - case formulation 378–9
 - case example 379
 - psychosocial concerns 376–7
 - therapist self-care 385–6
 - treatment 380
 - CBT 381
 - CBT in cancer context 381
 - clinical hypnosis 382–3
 - internet-based self-help 385
 - mindfulness-based interventions 381–2
 - print self-help 384–5
 - self-help interventions 383–4
- cardiovascular disease and exercise
 - protection from 31
 - recommended daily amounts 30
- catastrophizing 482–3
- centenarians 58–9
- cervical cancer screening for migrants 90
- character strengths and virtues (CSV) model 113
- chemotherapy 364–5
- child care 163
- childhood obesity, implications of maternal obesity 292–300
- Chronic Disease Self Management (CDSM)
 - program 64–5
- chronic disease, aging well interventions 64–5
- chronic fatigue syndrome 397
- Chronic Pain Acceptance Questionnaire 483
- cigarette smoking 436, 439, 440
- cleft lip/palate 243
- clinical factors in nonadherence 452–3
- clinical hypnosis 382–3
- cluster headache 463
- cognitive aging 60
- cognitive attentional syndrome (CAS) 351
- cognitive behavior therapies (CBTs) 4–5
 - alcohol abuse 350
 - assisted reproductive technologies (ART) 193
 - body image issues 269–70
 - diabetes management 427–8
 - group-based for perinatal depression (PND) 218–19
 - headaches 471–2
 - health coaching 17
 - insomnia (CBT-i) 233
 - compared with drug therapy 237
 - components 234
 - pain 484–5
 - psycho-oncology 370, 381
 - cancer context 381
 - SUDs 338–9
- cognitive impairment 66
- cognitive restructuring in weight-loss interventions 309
- cognitive skills in nonadherence 451–2
- cognitive therapy 235–6
- cognitive training in aging well interventions 66
- Cognitive-Social Health Information Processing (C-SHIP) 174
- collective capability 499, 502
 - enhancement by nurses 500–2
- common sense model (CSM)
 - diabetes 418–19
 - rumination 406
- communion 74
- Communities that Care (CtC) 337–8
- Community Reinforcement and Family Training (CRAFT) 339
- community-based approaches for SUDs 337–8
- companion animals 134–5
 - clinical health psychology practice 137
 - animal-assisted therapy (AAT) 137
 - grief and bereavement 138
 - service animals 137–8
 - social support 138
 - health promotion 135
 - advocating importance of companion animals 136
 - cost-benefit analysis 136
 - epidemiological studies 136
 - public campaigns 135
 - health psychology research 139–40
 - interprofessional education 138–9
 - animal health workers 139
 - veterinary medicine 139

- Comprehensive Health Enhancement Support System (CHESS) program 385
- contemplation stage of change 5, 6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- coronal stenosis 244
- cranial neuralgias 463
- craniofacial anomalies 148–9, 242, 252
 - case studies 243
 - conditions 243–4
 - conditions, living with
 - adulthood 247–8
 - challenges for sufferers 244–6
 - childhood and adolescence 247
 - cognitive functioning 248–9
 - positive aspects 246
 - predictors of psychosocial functioning 249–50
 - conditions
 - common syndromes 244
 - interventions 250–1
 - cognitive-behavioral interventions 251–2
 - social skills training 251
- Crouzon syndrome 244
- culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) populations 89
- culture and health 84, 95
 - Indigenous Australians 91–5
 - infertility and infertility treatment 188–9
 - migrants 84–5
 - health behavior and barriers 89–91
 - lifestyle factors 85–9
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 122
- day reconstruction method (DRM) 125
- decreasing unhealthy behaviors 4
- dementia 66
- dental anxiety 149
- dental caries 144, 146
- dental phobias 149–50
- depression
 - see also* perinatal depression (PND)
 - aging well interventions 65–6
 - arthritic conditions 393, 395
 - exercise
 - benefits from 32
 - recommended daily amounts 30
 - HIV and AIDS 204–5
 - integrated treatment 311
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 103, 108
- depression care management (DCM) model 65–6
- Diabetes Coping Measure (DCM) 421, 424
- diabetes management 415–16, 429–30
 - cognitive processes, emotion and coping 419–23
 - diabetes-specific psychological assessment 423–5
 - exercise 31
 - migrants 85
 - psychological interventions
 - counselling and psychotherapeutic approaches 426–8
 - educational and self-management 425–6
 - self-regulation interventions 428–9
 - self-regulation, self-determination and self-management 417–19
- Diabetes Problem Solving Scale (DPSS) 424–5
- Diabetes Quality of Life Measure (DQOL) 424
- Diabetes Stress Questionnaire (DSQ) 424
- diagnosis of chronic illness 405–6
- diet
 - Indigenous Australians 93
 - migrants 85–7
 - interventions 87–8
 - obesity and overweight management 305–6, 309
- disability-adjusted life years (DALYs) for Australians 92
- disease-modifying antirheumatic drugs (DMARDs) 394
- distress 368–9
- domain satisfaction (DS) 116
- donor gametes 193–4
- Drug Abuse and Resistance Education (DARE) 336
- drug abuse in migrants 91
- Eating Disorder Diagnostic Scale (EDDS) 279
- Eating Disorder Inventory-3 279
- eating disorder not otherwise specified (EDNOS) 278
- eating disorders
 - see also* maladaptive eating practices
 - appetitive behavioral problems 79
 - femininity hypothesis 77–8
 - frameworks 280–4
- Edinburgh Postnatal Depression Scale (EDPS) 215, 216–17, 222
- electroencephalography (EEG) in insomnia 231
- employment health psychology 164
 - changing workplace 158–60
 - shift work and insomnia 230–1
 - sources and effects of stress 160

- work-life balance (WLB) 162–4
- workplace health promotion 161–2
- enhanced counselling (EC) 179
- Epworth Sleepiness Scale (ESS) 229
- ergotamine 464
- establishing new healthy behaviors 4
- exercise 39–40
 - arthritis 394
 - companion animals 135
 - increasing 36
 - effective interventions 37–8
 - efficacy of interventions 36–7
 - useful interventions 38–9
 - mental benefits 44
 - depression 32
 - mood 32
 - obesity and overweight management 306
 - physiological benefits 44
 - other positive physical health outcomes 31
 - protection from specific diseases 31
 - weight loss 30–1
 - potential risks 32–3
 - prevalence 34–5
 - recommendations for specific benefits 33, 34
 - general health 33–4
 - recommended daily amounts 30
 - risks from sedentary behavior 35–6
- exercise dependence 48–50
 - evaluation criteria 49
- exercise good and bad habits 44–5, 50
 - development 47–8
 - exercise dependence 48–50
 - structure 45–7
 - training distress 48
- existential issues 367
- existential therapy 370–1
- Experience Corps[®] program 67
- experience sampling methodology (ESM) 125
- fainting 150
- familial hemiplegic migraine 464
- family therapy for SUDs 340
- family-oriented approaches for SUDs 337
- femininity 73, 74
 - appetitive behavioral problems 79
 - eating disorders 77–8
 - repression of feminine traits 77
- fibromyalgia (FM) 396–9
 - common comorbid conditions 397
 - management and treatment 399–401
- fingernail biting 148
- Flinders program 65
- flourishing scale (FS) 125
- forced expiratory volume (FEV₁) 436, 442
- Fourth Age 58
- functional relaxation (FR) 442–3
- gagging 147–8
- gender issues 72–3, 79–80
 - appetitive behavioral problems 79
 - body image 260–1
 - eating disorders and femininity 77–8
 - hegemonic masculinity 76–7
 - Indigenous Australians 94
 - infertility and infertility treatment 188–9
 - interactions between individuals 75–6
 - limitations of stereotypes 74–5
 - prescriptions and stereotypes 73–4
 - repression of feminine traits 77
 - stereotyping as control strategy 76
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 120–1
- general practice team 505, 514
 - future of primary healthcare in Australia 513–14
 - general practice in Australia 505–6
 - models in rural and remote Australia 511–13
 - roles within multidisciplinary team 506
 - general practitioners 506–7
 - mental health nurses 508
 - practice nurses 507–8
 - psychologists 509
- rural and remote healthcare 510
 - access 510
 - cultural safety 511
 - privacy and confidentiality 511
 - stronger multidisciplinary approach 510–11
 - useful approaches for psychologists 509–10
- generational labels and birth dates 122
- genetic risk assessment 171
 - definition 171–2
 - psychological interventions 178–80
 - psychological interventions 180
 - response understanding frameworks 174–5
- genetic testing 171–2
 - information provided 172–3
 - providers 173
 - psychosocial challenges 175–7
 - underlying factors 175
- glycemic index 86
- goal setting 9–10
- weight-loss intervention 308

- Golden Gurus language program 67
- Goldenhar syndrome 244
- Good Life Club (GLC) project 7
- Good Sports program 327–9
 - accreditation levels 328
- grief, benefit of companion animals 138
- group-based cognitive behavior therapy for
 - perinatal depression (PND) 218–19
- guided imagery (GI) 442–3

- happiness 101
- happy migrant effect 89–90
- Harvey model of insomnia 232–3
- Headache Disability Inventory (HDI) 470
- Headache Impact Test (HIT) 470
- headaches, psychological management 462–3, 473
 - assessment 469
 - interviewing 469
 - questionnaires and inventories 470
 - self-monitoring 469–70
 - classification 466
 - effectiveness of treatment 472–3
 - functional model 466–8
 - genetic and environmental influences 464
 - headache classification and diagnosis 463–4
 - peripheral and central mechanisms 464–5
 - treatment 470–1
 - biofeedback training 471
 - relaxation training 471
- health and illness management model 7–11
 - health behavior change phase 8–11
 - health behavior maintenance phase 11
 - health education phase 8
- health at every size (HAES) 312
- health behavior change 3
 - future directions 12
 - interdisciplinary models of care 11–12
 - maintaining change 3–4
 - models 4
 - underlying principles 4–5
 - models from health psychology 5
 - health and illness management model 7–11
 - readiness to change model 5–6
 - self-regulatory model (SRM) 6–7
- health belief model (HBM) 448–9
- Health Change Australia (HCA) Model of
 - Health Change 22–5
 - theoretical model 24
- health change spectrum 17
- health coaching 15–16, 25
 - definition 16–17
 - efficacy 19–22
 - HCA model 22–5
 - rationale behind 18–19
- health psychology models
 - health behavior change 5
 - health and illness management model 7–11
 - readiness to change model 5–6
 - self-regulatory model (SRM) 6–7
- healthy aging 59–60
- healthy migrant effect 84
- heart rate variability (HRV) biofeedback 443
- hegemonic gender roles 74–5
 - masculinity 76–7
- hemifacial microsomia 243
- herpes simplex virus (HSV) 199
 - psychological impact 199–200
- highly active antiretroviral therapy (HAART) 203
 - medication adherence 205–6
- homeostatically protected mood (HP mood) 107
- HUGS program 221
- human immunodeficiency virus (HIV)
 - infections 199, 207
 - psychological aspects 202–3
 - coping with diagnosis 203–4
 - depression and anxiety 204–5
 - medication adherence 205–6
 - procreation/parenting decisions 206–7
- human papillomavirus (HPV) 199
 - psychological impact 199–200
- hyperventilation 435, 437, 442, 443
- hypnosis, clinical 382–3

- illness beliefs 407, 420
- Illness Perception Questionnaire-Revised (IPQ-R) 420, 423–4
- illness perceptions 420
- immigration and health issues 84–5, 95
 - health behavior and barriers 89–91
 - lifestyle factors
 - diet 85–7
 - diet interventions 87–8
 - physical activity 88
 - physical activity interventions 89
- in vitro* fertilization (IVF) 186
- income and subjective wellbeing (SWB) 104, 105–6, 114
- increasing existing healthy behaviors 4

- individual aging 58–9
- infertility, psychological implications 185–6, 194–5
 - efficacy of interventions 191–3
 - gender differences 188–9
 - impact on sexual relationship 189–91
 - psychological impact 187–8
- inhaled corticosteroids (ICS) 436, 439
- Inner Thoughts on Eating Questionnaire (ITEQ) 282–3
- insomnia (as a sleep disorder) 228–9, 238
 - age-related 231
 - comorbidities 230
 - development and maintenance 232
 - diagnosis and differentiation 229
 - drug therapy 236–7
 - compared with CBT-i 237
 - electroencephalography 231
 - etiology, proposed 232
 - Harvey model 232–3
 - Spielman model 232
 - nonpharmacological treatment 233–4
 - acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT) 236
 - cognitive therapy 235–6
 - mindfulness 236
 - relaxation techniques 235
 - sleep hygiene education 236
 - sleep/bed restriction 235
 - stimulus control 235
 - pain conditions 231, 484
 - patient education about biological clock 237
 - practitioners 237–8
 - shift work 230–1
 - symptoms and features 229–30
- insomnia (as a symptom) 228
- interdisciplinary models of care 11–12
- internal buffers and subjective wellbeing (SWB) 106–7
- internal perceived locus of causality (I-PLOC) 417
- International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF) 478–80
- International Physical Activity Questionnaire (IPAQ) 35
- intrauterine insemination (IUI) 186
- irritable bowel syndrome 397
- learning to cope with triggers (LCT) 472
- lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender (LGBT)
 - people and subjective wellbeing (SWB) 121
- life satisfaction (LS) 116
- long working hours 163
- losing weight, using goal setting 9–10
- loss spiral 163
- maintenance stage of change 5, 6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- maladaptive cognitive patterns 406
- maladaptive eating practices 278–80, 284–5
 - see also* eating disorders
 - eating disorder frameworks 280–4
- masculinity 73, 74
 - appetitive behavioral problems 79
 - hegemonic 76–7
 - Indigenous Australians 94
 - infertility and infertility treatment 189
- maternal obesity 288
 - see also* obesity
 - future directions 300
 - implications for childhood obesity 292–300
 - psychosocial determinants 288–90
 - body image/perceived body weight 291
 - depression, anxiety and stress 290–1
 - other factors 291–2
- medication overuse headache (MOH) 463–4
- Mediterranean-style diet 87
- melatonin 230
- mental benefits of exercise 44
 - depression 32
 - mood 32
- metacognitive therapy (MCT) for alcohol
 - abuse 348
 - discussion 357–8
 - history of problem drinking behavior 348–9
 - metacognitive model 351
 - metacognitive perspective for
 - understanding SUDs 351–3
 - problem drinking behavior 353–4
 - model application case studies 354–7
 - psychological treatments problem drinking behavior 349–50
 - CBT 350
 - MI 350
- metacognitive therapy (MCT) for rumination 411
- methotrexate 393–4
- Migraine Disability Assessment (MIDAS)
 - questionnaire 470
- migraine headache 462–3
 - classification 466
 - genetic and environmental influences 464
 - peripheral and central mechanisms 464–5

- migrants 84–5
 - health behavior and barriers 89–91
 - lifestyle factors
 - diet 85–7
 - diet interventions 87–8
 - physical activity 88
 - physical activity interventions 89
- mindfulness 236
 - psycho-oncology 381–2
 - rumination 410
 - weight-loss intervention 312
- mindfulness-based stress reduction (MBSR) 370
- mood
 - exercise benefits 32
 - training distress 48
- motivation in nonadherence 452
- motivation to change 18
- motivational interviewing (MI) 8–9
 - alcohol abuse 350
 - enhancing adherence 455
 - five stages of change 9
 - increasing physical activity 39
 - SUDs 339
 - weight-loss intervention 312
- multidisciplinary healthcare 498–500, 502, 514
 - future of primary healthcare in Australia 513–14
 - general practice team roles 506
 - general practitioners 506–7
 - mental health nurses 508
 - practice nurses 507–8
 - psychologists 509
- models in rural and remote Australia 511–13
- nurses enhance collective capability 500–2
- rural and remote healthcare 510
 - access 510
 - cultural safety 511
 - privacy and confidentiality 511
 - stronger multidisciplinary approach 510–11
 - useful approaches for psychologists 509–10
- multilevel mixed-measurement item response theory (MMM-IRT) 125–6
- multisystematic therapy (MST) in diabetes management 428
- musculoskeletal disorder management 391, 401–2
 - arthritis 391–3
 - managing and treating OA and RA 393–6
- fibromyalgia (FM) 396–9
 - common comorbid conditions 397
 - management and treatment 399–401
- mutations 172
- naltrexone 340
- negative affect (NA) 116, 119
- negative beliefs about illness 407
- negative consequences of nonperformance 45–6, 47
- neuromatrix theory of pain 478
- nociception 477–8
- nonadherence
 - causes 449–50
 - attitude to medication 451
 - clinical factors 452–3
 - cognitive skills 451–2
 - motivation 452
 - patient factors 451
 - relationship factors 453
 - treatment factors 450–1
 - explaining 448
 - health belief model (HBM) 448–9
 - self-regulation model (SRM) 449
 - theory of planned behavior (TpB) 449
 - in chronic illness 447
- nursing 502
 - definition 497–8
 - enhancement of collective capability 500–2
 - in Australia 495–6
 - mental health nurses 508
 - practice nurses 507–8
- nutrition in weight-loss intervention 308
- obesity 262–3
 - see also* maternal obesity
 - arthritis 394
 - asthma risk 437
 - improving body image 264–5
 - migrants 85
 - relationship with body image 263–4
 - obesity and overweight management 303, 312–13
 - behavioral and cognitive-behavioral approaches 307
 - components 308–9
 - enhancing weight-loss interventions 309–10
 - history of weight-loss intervention 307–8
 - comorbidities 304
 - economic consequences 305
 - physical 304

- psychological 304–5
- social 304
- definitions and measurement 303
- future directions
 - integrated treatment for obesity and mental health 311
 - other promising approaches 312
 - supporting pharmacological and surgical interventions 310–11
- prevalence 303–4
- treatment 305
 - bariatric surgery 307
 - dietary interventions 305–6
 - exercise interventions 306
 - pharmacotherapy 306–7
- objective wellbeing (OWB) 115
- optimism and SWB 123
- oral health and wellbeing 143–4, 152–3
 - abnormal gagging 147–8
 - clinical oral health psychology 145–6
 - craniofacial anomalies 148–9
 - dental anxiety 149
 - dental phobias 149–50
 - disease 144–5
 - oral health promotion and health coaching 150–2
 - pain 146–7
 - professional liaison 152
 - stress 150
 - thumb-sucking and fingernail biting 148
- oro-facial-digital syndrome 244
- osteoarthritis (OA) 391–3
 - managing and treating 393–6
- overreaching 48
- overtraining syndrome 48
- pacing 485
- Pain Catastrophizing Scale (PCS) 482–3
- pain management 477, 488
 - assessment 481–2
 - outcome measures 482–3
 - pain history 482
 - case studies
 - persistent arm pain 486–7
 - persistent back pain 487
 - experience of pain 477
 - imaging studies 478
 - neuromatrix theory of pain 478
 - nociception 477–8
 - future developments 488
 - pain, disability and function
 - international classification 478–80
 - physical rehabilitation 481
 - psychological intervention 481
 - yellow flags, blue flags and black flags 480–1
 - treatment
 - CBT 484–5
 - interdisciplinary 485–6
 - setting goals 483
 - treatment plan 483–4
- pain
 - insomnia 231
 - perception of 146
- panic attacks 438
- paradigms of health 94–5
- patient factors in nonadherence 451
- patient-centred interdisciplinary collaborative care model 12
- patterning of action 45–6
- penetrance of mutations 172
- penicillamine 394
- Perceived Diabetes Self-Management Scale (PDSMS) 424
- perinatal depression (PND) 212–13, 222–3
 - see also* depression
 - definitions 213
 - emotional health assessment 216
 - anxiety 218
 - psychosocial assessment 217–18
 - screening and diagnosis 216–17
 - need for active identification 214–15
 - parent–infant intervention 221
 - prevalence 214
 - prevention 222
 - screening 215
 - acceptability 216
 - deployment 215–16
 - social support 221
 - symptoms 213–14
 - treatment 218
 - antidepressants 219–20
 - combination therapy 219
 - group-based cognitive behavior therapy 218–19
 - treatment preferences 220
- periodontal disease 144
- Personal Wellbeing Index
 - adult (PWI-A) 116, 125
 - frequency distribution 103
 - major medical conditions 108
- personality
 - headaches 468
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 122–3

- pessimism and SWB 123
- pets see companion animals
- physical activity 29, 39–40
 - aging well interventions 63–4
 - benefits 30, 44
 - benefits, mental 44
 - depression 32
 - mood 32
 - benefits, physiological 44
 - other positive physical health outcomes 31
 - protection from specific diseases 31
 - weight loss 30–1
- companion animals 135
- increasing 36
 - effective interventions 37–8
 - efficacy of interventions 36–7
 - useful interventions 38–9
- migrants 88
 - interventions 89
- potential risks 32–3
- prevalence 34–5
- recommendations for specific benefits 33, 34
 - general health 33–4
- recommended daily amounts 30
- risks from sedentary behavior 35–6
- weight-loss intervention 308, 309
- physiological benefits of exercise 44
 - other positive physical health outcomes 31
 - protection from specific diseases 31
 - weight loss 30–1
- point-of-decision prompt (PODPs) 47, 48
- population aging 58–9
- positive affect (PA) 116, 119
- positive beliefs about illness 407
- positive predictive value (PPV) of a screening tool 215–16
- positive psychology 112–13
 - positive health 113–14
- postnatal depression see perinatal depression (PND)
- PRECEDE/PROCEED model 322–7
- precontemplation stage of change 5, 6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- prednisolone 393–4
- pregbalin 400
- preparation stage of change 5, 6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- prevention programs for SUDs 336
 - community-based approaches 337–8
 - family-oriented approaches 337
 - integration 338
 - school-based programs 336–7
- primary headaches 463
- problem solving techniques 454
 - weight-loss intervention 308
- Project Alert 337
- psychological injury 160
- psychological wellbeing (PWB) 115, 116
- psycho-oncology 363–4, 365–6
 - cancer treatments and side effects 364–5
 - definition of cancer 364
 - issues facing cancer patients and families 366
 - emotional and psychological issues 367
 - healthcare system issues 367
 - physical issues 366
 - social and practical concerns 366
 - spiritual and existential issues 367
- psychological strategies for patients and families
 - psychological interventions 369–71
 - screening for distress 368–9
- resources for health professionals
 - books 371–2
 - reports 372
 - websites 372
- support for patients and families 368
- therapist self-care 385–6
- psychosocial wellbeing conceptual models 112, 126
 - future directions 124
 - data analysis techniques 125–6
 - definitional issues 124–5
 - measurement issues 125
 - research design issues 125
- positive psychology 112–13
 - positive health 113–14
- quality of life and wellbeing 114–15
- subjective wellbeing (SWB) 115–19
- subpopulations 119–20, 124
 - age 121–2
 - culture 122
 - gender 120–1
 - other individual differences 124
 - personality 122–3
 - spirituality and religiosity 123
 - wellbeing conceptual diagram 115
- quality of life (QOL) 112, 114–15
 - gender 120–1
- Questionnaire for Eating Disorder Diagnoses (Q-EDD) 279

- radiation treatment 365
- readiness to change model 5–6
 - motivational interviewing (MI) 9
- relapse prevention in weight-loss intervention 309
- relationship factors in nonadherence 453
- relationships and subjective wellbeing (SWB) 105
- relaxation techniques 235
 - headache treatment 471
- religion and health issues 91
 - diabetes coping mechanisms 421
 - psycho-oncology 367
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 123
- rheumatoid arthritis (RA) 391–3
 - managing and treating 393–6
- RICK Principle™ 23
- rites of passage 76–7
- role stereotyping 72–3, 79–80
 - appetitive behavioral problems 79
 - as a control strategy 76
 - eating disorders and femininity 77–8
 - gender 73–4
 - hegemonic masculinity 76–7
 - Indigenous Australians 94
 - interactions between individuals 75–6
 - limitations 74–5
 - repression of feminine traits 77
- rumination as a cognitive process 405–11
 - ruminating on the future 411–12
 - thinking about thinking 411
- rural and remote healthcare 510
 - access 510
 - cultural safety 511
 - privacy and confidentiality 511
 - stronger multidisciplinary approach 510–11
- Saethre–Chotzen syndrome 244
- scale of positive and negative experiences (SPANE) 125
- school-based SUD programs 336–7
- secondary headaches 463
- sedentary behavior risks 35–6
- selective serotonin reuptake inhibitors (SSRIs)
 - fibromyalgia (FM) 400
 - perinatal depression (PND) 220
- self-determination theory (SDT) 417–18
- self-efficacy 18, 483
- self-help interventions in cancer 383–4
 - internet-based 385
 - print formats 384–5
- self-monitoring in weight-loss intervention 308
- self-regulation model (SRM) 449
- self-regulatory executive function model (S-REF) 351
- self-regulatory model (SRM) 6–7
- seniors as mentors 66–7
- service animals 137–8
- sexual dysfunction 190
- sexual health
 - body image 267–8
 - infertility and infertility treatment 189–91
 - migrants 90
- sexually transmitted infections (STIs) 199, 207
 - disclosure to sexual partners 200–1
 - genital herpes and genital HPV 199–200
 - psychological interventions 201–2
- sleep 228–9, 238
 - age-related insomnia 231
 - aging well interventions 64
 - comorbidity and insomnia 230
 - development and maintenance of insomnia 232
 - drug therapy for insomnia 236–7
 - compared with CBT-i 237
 - electroencephalography and insomnia 231
 - etiology of insomnia, proposed 232
 - Harvey model 232–3
 - Spielman model 232
 - nonpharmacological treatment of insomnia 233–4
 - acceptance and commitment therapy (ACT) 236
 - cognitive therapy 235–6
 - mindfulness 236
 - relaxation techniques 235
 - sleep hygiene education 236
 - sleep/bed restriction 235
 - stimulus control 235
 - pain conditions and insomnia 231, 484
 - patient education about biological clock 237
 - practitioners 237–8
 - shift work and insomnia 230–1
 - symptoms and features of insomnia 229–30
- social control theory (SCT) 335
- social learning theory (SLT) 334–5
- social wellbeing 115
- spectrum of health change 17
- Spielman model of insomnia 232
- spirituality
 - psycho-oncology 367
 - subjective wellbeing (SWB) 123

- staleness 48
- stimulus control in weight-loss intervention 308
- stimulus-response (SR) bonding 45–6
- strategies for increasing exercise habits 47
- stress
 - dental procedures 150
 - sources and effects in workplace 160
- stress and coping theory 378
- subjective wellbeing (SWB) 101–2, 112, 114–15, 126
 - conceptual diagram 115
 - health and depression 108
 - homeostasis 102
 - BMI 104–5
 - buffers 105–7
 - genetic control 103–4
 - income 104
 - normally stable and positive 102–3
 - object of defence 107
 - protection 104–5
 - implications for practice 108–9
 - models and measures 117–18
 - structure, proposed 120
 - subpopulations 119–20, 124
 - age 121–2
 - culture 122
 - gender 120–1
 - other individual differences 124
 - personality 122–3
 - spirituality and religiosity 123
- substance-use disorders (SUDs) and MCT 352–3
- substance-use disorders (SUDs) in young people 333–4, 341
 - conceptual and theoretical bases 334
 - social control theory (SCT) 335
 - social learning theory (SLT) 334–5
 - integration 340–1
 - prevention and clinical change models 335–6
 - prevention programs 336–8
 - treatment programs 338–40
- successful aging 59–60
- supportive psychotherapy 369–70
- surrogacy 193–4
- Survey of Pain Attitudes (SOPA) 482
- targeted cancer therapies 365
- team working 495, 502
 - clinical practice settings 496
 - multidisciplinary healthcare 498–500
 - nurses enhance collective capability 500–2
- nursing
 - definition 497–8
 - in Australia 495–6
- Teen Adjustment to Diabetes Scale (TADS) 424
- tension-type headache 463
 - classification 466
 - peripheral and central mechanisms 464–5
- test, operate, test, exist (TOTE) 417
- theory of planned behavior (TpB) 449
- therapeutic alliances 453
- therapist self-care 385–6
- thinking about illness 406–7
- Third Age 58
- thumb-sucking 148
- tobacco addiction 439
- training distress 48
- tramadol 400
- transtheoretical model (TTM) for increasing physical activity 38
- Treacher Collis syndrome 244
- treatment factors in nonadherence 450–1
- Treatment Self-Regulation Questionnaire (TSRQ) 423
- tricyclic antidepressants (TCAs) for fibromyalgia (FM) 400
- triggers of headaches 468
 - learning to cope with triggers (LCT) 472
- unemployment
 - health effects 159
 - migrants 91
- U-shaped happiness curve 121
- varenicline 340
- vasovagal syncope 150
- Waardenberg syndrome 244
- weight gain in immigrants 86
- weight loss
 - exercise 30–1
 - recommended daily amounts 30
 - goal setting 9–10
 - obesity and overweight management 307–8
 - enhancing 309–10
- weight maintenance, recommended daily exercise amounts 30
- wellbeing conceptual diagram 115
- work–life balance (WLB) 159–60, 162–4
- workplace psychology 158–60, 164
 - health promotion 161–2
 - shift work and insomnia 230–1
 - sources and effects of stress 160
 - work–life balance (WLB) 162–4